Our Vision: Growing closer to God, each other and our community

Today is Sunday 4th November 2018 -
(All Saints)

Opening Sentence

Let us rejoice in the Lord and keep a festival of honour of all the saints. Let us join with the angels in joyful praise to the Son of God.

Collect of the Day

We praise you, heavenly Father, that you have knit together your chosen ones in one communion and fellowship in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,

one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The first reading is Isaiah 25.6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24

R: Lord, this is the people than longs to see your face.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:
the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.
For he has founded it upon the seas:
and established it upon the waters.

R: Lord, this is the people than longs to see your face.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord:
or who shall stand in his holy place?
Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:
who have not set their soul upon idols,
nor sworn their oath to a lie.

R: Lord, this is the people than longs to see your face.

They shall receive blessing from the Lord:
and recompense from the God of their salvation.
Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:
those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O you gates,
and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.

R: Lord, this is the people than longs to see your face.

Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O you gates,
and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory?:

the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

R: Lord, this is the people than longs to see your face.

The Second Reading is Revelations 21.1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.' And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia

Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading: John 11.32-44

The Lord be with you and also with you

The Gospel of our Lord according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?' Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

This is the Gospel of our Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Solemnity of All Souls

Monday 5th of November

St. James, Waikerie

The solemnity of All Souls is a time to pray for all of our loved ones who have gone to their rest. This simple service will include lighting candles to remember those who we have lost, and light refreshments afterward.

Deacon Scott Mudd will be leading this simple and beautiful memorial service, and we invite all who mourn the loss of a loved one to join us. For more info, please contact Scott on 0411 191 864, email revscottmudd@gmail.com, or visit riverlandanglicans.org.au
