Our Vision: Growing closer to God, each other and our community

Today is Sunday 21st October 2018 - (Twenty-second Sunday after Pentecost)

Opening Sentence

The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Collect of the Day

God of unchangeable power,
when the heaven and earth were made,
the morning stars sang together
and the host of heaven shouted for joy:
open our eyes to the wonders of creation and teach us to use all things for good, to the honour of your glorious name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The first reading is Job 38.1-7

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind: 'Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. 'Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy?

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 91.9-16

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

The Lord himself is your refuge:
you have made the Most High your stronghold.
Therefore no harm will befall you:
nor will any scourge come near your tent.

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

For he will command his angels:
to keep you in all your ways.
They will bear you up in their hands:
lest you dash your foot against a stone.

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

You will tread on the lion and the adder:
the young lion and the serpent
you will trample under foot.

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

'You have set your love upon me,' says the Lord,
'and therefore I will deliver you:
I will lift you out of danger,
because you have known my name.

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

'When you call upon me I will answer you:
I will be with you in trouble,
I will rescue you and bring you to honour.
'With long life I will satisfy you:
and fill you with my salvation.'

R: The Lord himself is your refuge.

The Second Reading is Hebrews 5.1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.' In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia

The Son of man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all Alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel Reading: Mark 10.35 - 45

The Lord be with you and also with you

The Gospel of our Lord according to Mark
Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' They replied, 'We are able.' Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.' When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

This is the Gospel of our Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Solemnity of All Souls

6 pm Monday 5th of November

St. James, Walkerie

The solemnity of All Souls is a time to pray for all of our loved ones who have gone to their rest. This simple service will include lighting candles to remember those who we have lost, and light refreshments afterward.

Deacon Scott Mudd will be leading this simple and beautiful memorial service, and we invite all who mourn the loss of a loved one to join us.
